

Antony Pitt

Regional Director

Email: Antony@Willis-Consulting.com

Joined the company: 2008

In current position since: 2008

Career history: Antony began his professional career as a Financial Advisor with Laurentian Milldon in the City of London. He later chose to pursue the financial executive search career path, and as one of their original employees, joined Hanover Search which is now one of the largest Financial Services recruitment firms in the UK. In 2000 he joined Alexander Lort of London, where he was involved in searches for major UK and US financial services firms including Axa, Prudential, AIG, MetLife and Zurich. His reputation and work at board level and head of Distribution was renowned throughout the industry. Following a meeting with Bill Willis,

CEO of Willis-Consulting in 2007, he decided to take advantage of his mother's U.S citizenship and dual nationality status and make the move across the pond. Arriving in LA in 2008, Antony brings twenty years of professional experience to the firm.

Additional Information:

Antony enjoyed a very successful high school career in the UK as a soccer goalkeeper. He was awarded a scholarship to Millfield School in Somerset, Europe's most elite and sought after sporting school. He played for England Schoolboys and had a week's trial at Chelsea Football Club; one of England's top premier leagues .He now spends the vast majority of his spare time on the golf course. Antony is single and lives in Redondo Beach.

Experienced. Discreet. Independent.